

MEET THE TEAM

Kathryn Diane McGwier Gittel

Kathryn Diane McGwier Gittel, known as Kadee, is a distinguished expert in commercial real estate with extensive experience and a solid track record. Licensed in Idaho, Washington, and Montana, she currently works as a REALTOR® at eXp Realty, specializing in fair market evaluations for rental investments and residential pricing strategies. She established Summit Homes Property Management in 2018, providing self-management assistance in Washington and full service in Idaho, and founded Timberline Vacations in 2021, operating in Idaho with plans to expand to Montana.

Kadee has held significant roles, including President Elect of the Women's Council of Realtors: North Idaho Network, and Chairperson of the NIBCA Parade of Homes.

Her education includes a business focus from North Idaho College and certification from The Illumni Institute as a Certified Divorce Real Estate (CDRE) expert, with ongoing coursework for her Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designation. Recognized for her excellence with several awards, Kadee is a member of numerous professional networks, including the National Association of REALTORS® and the Institute of Real Estate Management.

She works with distinguished investors and is actively pursuing retail and multifamily real estate as her niche. Kadee's extensive background, rigorous training, and professional network make her a top choice for clients seeking expert guidance in commercial real estate transactions.

