Manisha Munikar

Manisha S Munikar discovered her passion for commercial real estate while assisting residential clients, mostly of them were investors. During the process, she became captivated by the data, research, and insights that drive informed decision-making in the industry.

This curiosity and determination to expand her expertise led her to transition into the commercial real estate sector, where she now specializes in investment sales, particularly in retail and development. Over the years, Manisha has supported clients in acquiring investment properties by providing comprehensive market analysis, negotiating deals, facilitating due diligence, securing financing, and guiding them through the complexities of contracts. She is dedicated to delivering personalized solutions and ensuring that every step of the process is straightforward, transparent, and stress-free. With a strong interest in the real estate market, a genuine desire to help others, and a commitment to independence and flexibility, Manisha has established herself as a market expert and trusted advisor in the commercial real estate industry.
